Mayor Wells-Armstrong Releases New City of Kankakee Comment Cards

Kankakee, IL – Several people have expressed their feedback about the City of Kankakee. Whether it's a new idea, something they appreciate in the community or what more they would like to see, comment cards are now available.

The cards are typically distributed at events such as Saturday's Mingle with the Mayor, however are available in the City's Administration Building, the Mayor's office, Clerk's office, Public Safety Building, and the Economic and Community Development Agency.

The feedback that is collected is being compiled to focus on certain areas such as public safety, condition of city streets, ordinances, city council, communication and a variety of programs that are offered in the City of Kankakee. The feedback is then tracked by what ward the resident lives in and will be shared with aldermen.

"We are reaching out to people in ways the City of Kankakee has never before and the feedback we are receiving is helpful. We want to stress the fact that your voice matters and our Economic and Community Development Agency also does an excellent job reaching out in our community. We are all working together strategically to get things done and continue to move Kankakee Forward," said Mayor Wells-Armstrong.
